Anna and Nate have something big in common—they want it all. And having it all means being together.

But Becky is making it increasingly challenging for that to happen—happily. She’s had a secret that she didn’t want to get out. She knew it would destroy her ex, Nate. She knew it could destroy all of Chance—the band she doesn’t want to love as much as she does. She knew it could even destroy her best friend, Anna. But worst of all, it could destroy herself.

So when she can’t keep the secret to herself anymore, she knows she unleashing true heartache on all the people she loves. Now everyone has to decide—are the people they love worth fighting for?

Nate’s trust for Anna is questioned. He realizes she makes him a better person. But can he be with her when the rest of his world is crashing around him? Will he just drag her down in the process? Or is what they have true love that will endure?
