Algunas puertas deberían permanecer cerradas... En Barrington House, un elegante bloque de pisos londinense, hay un apartamento vacío. Nadie entra, nadie sale. Y ha permanecido así durante cincuenta años. Hasta que una noche el vigilante oye unos ruidos después de medianoche y decide ir a investigar. Lo que experimenta allí basta para cambiar su vida para siempre. La joven Apryl llega a Barrington House procedente de Estados Unidos. Ha heredado un apartamento de su misteriosa tía abuela Lillian, fallecida en extrañas circunstancias. Se rumorea que Lillian estaba loca. Pero su diario insinúa que estuvo implicada en un suceso terrible e inexplicable varias décadas atrás. Decidida a averiguar algo sobre esta excéntrica mujer, Apryl comenzará a desentrañar la historia oculta de Barrington House. No tardará demasiado en descubrir que un mal que transforma a la gente aún habita el edificio. Y que la puerta del apartamento 16 es el acceso a algo mucho más terrorífico...
