“El mayor error de los asesinos es creer que nadie puede pensar como ellos.” En la vibrante Sevilla de los años 20 aparece muerto en la calle un representante de una reputada familia inglesa. Varias puñaladas lo han silenciado para siempre. Sin embargo, los sospechosos son múltiples. Al ser el difunto extranjero, se decide encomendar a una singular pareja el asunto: por un lado, un experimentado guardia civil sevillano; por el otro, un excéntrico investigador inglés. Segismundo Rialto y León D’arcy empezarán a desmarañar el culpable del asesinato mientras se pone de manifiesto el caldo de cultivo de la época: la inminente Exposición Iberoamericana, la Unión Patriótica en el gobierno... y la Semana Santa a la vuelta de la esquina.
