Bhagwat Geeta (abridged)

© Earth,
Where this sacred scripture of Geeta is read or heard, I am present there always.
(BHARAT PURAN)

According to Hindu mythology, we are passing through 'KALIYUGA' when crimes and sine will touch their peak. Science will touch its sublimity so much so that man will try to interfere with nature. Even test-tube babies are being produced. Man will have little time to spare for his duty towards his creator for which he is born and gradually time will come when he will even forget his creator. Even then, nature would continue to work. When sins and crimes will be on the increase, birth of incarnation will also be there, lest the balance of nature will cease to function. Light always comes after dark. Though there will be little time for one to spare but still if one spares 10 to 15 minutes daily for devotion to Him, he will be able to accomplish his desire and will be able to get satisfaction for which he is after. I have therefore ventured to put down GEETA Lord Krishna's teaching in a concise form.
