Author: “—And then the reclusive royal billionaire Prince Wulf von Hannover and small-town college student Rae Stone lived happily . . . ever . . . after.”

Readers: “And then what happened?”

Author: “But, at the end of Billionaires in Disguise: Rae, Wulf and Rae are engaged, and they’re going to be married the next morning, and if you notice, she’s pregnant. That’s the end of the story.”

Readers: “And then what happened?”

Author: “Well, okay, you can kind of see where their story goes in these other short stories and subplots in these other books, so if you just follow me—”

Readers: “AND THEN WHAT HAPPENED?”

Author: “Um, okay? Here it is all in one book? Are we good now?”

Readers: “Better.”

Finally, due to readers’ demand, here are all the epilogues, short stories, and interval scenes involving Wulf and Rae that come after Billionaires in Disguise: Rae. Consider it Wulf and Rae: Volume Two. While this is an anthology of short stories and novellas, it is as long as an average novel. The epilogues and stories, put together, are 55,000 words, which is about 340 pages in paperback. Happy reading!

Includes:

Introduction from the Author

Epilogue I (short story)

Epilogue II (short story)

In Paris (Interval Scenes) (short story)

Skiing in June (A Rae and Wulf Story) (novella)

Kidnapped (A Rae and Wulf Story) (novella)

Rae and Wulf: At the Hospital (Interval Scenes) (short story)

Montreux (A Rae and Wulf Story) (novella)

Keep Dreaming (short story)
