El birding, o fotografía de aves, aúna dos bellísimas disciplinas: el naturalismo y la fotografía. En este libro se recoge, en 130 páginas, una selección de fotografías de unos de los más prestigiosos fotógrafos de naturaleza de nuestro país, además de varias reseñas y textos donde conocer y valorar la importancia del Coto de Doñana en el panorama internacional de Parques y Reservas Naturales. Todo ello con la colaboración de eminentes naturalistas expertos, así como un glosario donde el autor nos indica en pinceladas, cómo intentar conseguir la mejor fotografía de cada una de las especies que aparecen en el libro.
