La historia se abre en los bosques de Alaska, donde dos hombres, Henry y Bill (dos guardias), tratan afanosamente de alcanzar un fuerte cercano en un trineo. Su carga consiste, además de los utensilios comunes, en el cadáver de un Lord que los había contratado para el viaje. Sin embargo, el trayecto se complica debido a que una manada de lobos hambrientos, siguiendo su rastro, comienza a rodearlos a prudente distancia, arrebatándoles día a día los perros de trineo. Es una novela que contiene, en forma sesgada, argumentos en favor de la aceptación de las diferencias y del valor del trabajo en equipo. Es un gran libro para jóvenes lectores.
