Días sin ti es una historia de complicidad a través del tiempo, la de una abuela y su nieto. Dora, maestra en tiempos de la República, comparte con Gael la historia que la ha llevado a ser quien es. Con ternura, pero con crudeza, confiesa sus emociones a su nieto escultor, un joven con una sensibilidad especial, y le brinda, sin que éste lo sepa todavía, las claves para reponerse de las heridas causadas por un amor truncado.

A través de la reflexión y de lo que enseña la melancolía, esta novela transita esos caminos por los que todos, en algún momento, tenemos que pasar para comprender que la vida y el amor son sublimes precisamente porque tienen un final.
