La fascinante y desconocida historia de los españoles que introdujeron el cine en China.

Shanghái, 26 de noviembre de 1922, once de la noche. Bernardo Goldenberg, gerente de Ramos Amusement Company, se despide de dos hombres en el vestíbulo del cine Victoria. Al día siguiente, la noticia de su brutal asesinato es portada de todos los periódicos.

El caso Goldenberg desvela la olvidada historia de los españoles que introdujeron y dominaron la industria del cine en China. Un relato verídico protagonizado por hombres como Antonio Ramos, el granadino que creó el mayor emporio cinematográfico de Asia Oriental... hasta que la muerte de su socio puso fin al dominio del cine español en China.
