Un ambicioso plan urbanístico en la Costa de la Muerte genera graves conflictos entre los constructores y los alcaldes de los municipios afectados. Amenazas, extraños secuestros y muertes accidentales en las obras complican la investigación del cabo Holmes, paralela a la que lleva por su cuenta el detective Julio César Santos, su amigo, siempre tan original y poco ortodoxo.

Todo empieza en Nochebuena, bajo una espectacular tormenta, con el atraco al chalé de Pereira, conocido empresario y constructor, y su misteriosa desaparición.

La descripción de los paisajes de esta bella región gallega, los vendavales y el oleaje de sus playas salvajes, la variedad de personajes y un sinfín de acontecimientos extraños mantienen en vilo al lector y lo conducen hacia un final inesperado y sorprendente, no exento de cierto toque humorístico.
