Florencia, verano de 1963. El comisario Bordelli soporta el calor en una ciudad desierta por las vacaciones. La banal rutina veraniega se ve interrumpida por la aparición del cuerpo sin vida de una anciana señora en su villa del siglo XVII. Las circunstancias de la muerte y la autopsia realizada por Diotivede, el forense de con fianza y amigo de Bordelli, inducen a pensar que se trata de un crimen. El comisario, poco amante de las reglas y más partidario de seguir su propio código ético, inicia una investigación que le va poniendo en contacto con los familiares y personas que solían frecuentar a la víctima. Con El comisario Bordelli, primera novela de esta serie ambientada en Florencia, Marco Vichi crea una original figura de investigador que continúa sus pesquisas en Muerte en Florencia y La fuerza del destino.
