Sigue a Adela, Javi y Marta en su viaje por la periferia de Madrid en busca de cerveza y escapismo a ritmo de doble bombo y riffs afilados del género musical más en boga del momento: el heavy metal. No son malos estudiantes pero se sienten perdidos, sus familias no les entienden, el mundo está en su contra. Descubren el amor, el sexo y las juergas infinitas, pero sobre todo descubren nuevos grupos cada día, y flipan con ellos. Desde Alice Cooper a Barón Rojo, Obús y Ozzy Osbourne escuchados por primera vez en la sala Canciller (el Canci) y disfrutados a diario entre colegas, birras y ligoteo de barriada. Una novela gráfica urbana y madrileña, un coming of age heavy metal.
