Durante una battuta di caccia in Scozia l'agente speciale dell'FBI Aloysius Pendergast viene colpito al petto da una fucilata. A premere il grilletto è stato suo cognato Judson, ma non si è trattato di una tragica fatalità: l'uomo vuole ucciderlo, e prima di lasciarlo affondare nelle sabbie mobili gli rivela una verità sconvolgente. Helen, la moglie di cui Aloysius piange la scomparsa da quindici anni, è viva. Sorretto solo dalla forza dell'odio, Pendergast scampa alla morte e si mette sulle tracce di Judson. Ma più scava nel passato di Helen e di suo fratello, più sente di avvicinarsi al cuore di un complotto dalla portata sconvolgente.
