En Lujuria, Juan Eslava Galán, conocido por sus amenos ensayos divulgativos, cuenta las anécdotas y los datos más curiosos que el sexo y el deseo han aportado a la Historia de España. Algunos de los episodios narrados en este libro son los amores clandestinos de María Cristina de Nápoles, la última esposa de Fernando VII; las películas pornográficas promovidas nada más y nada menos que por Alfonso XIII; el asesinato de Carmen Broto, una prostituta que sabía demasiado; la represión de la homosexualidad en la España franquista; o el destape de los años setenta. Este es el primer volumen de la serie Los siete pecados capitales de la Historia de España, cuya segunda entrega tratará sobre un pecado de rabiosa actualidad: la avaricia.
