What happens when the fairytale ends but the journey continues?Book ii of the Heart of All Worlds series finds Sehrys and Brieden living peacefully in Khrysllee until King Firaie must cross The Border in pursuit of a convicted criminal, one who has violated a magical doctrine and so threatened the stability of their world. When Firaes plan goes awry and he becomes trapped in Villalu, he is faced with a choice between allegiance to the Council or allegiance to Brissa, the fierce young human queen who is determined to bring justice to Villalu. Firaie discovers he must rely on the very criminal he was seeking to help him get home alive--a man he exiled long ago, but who awakens something in his heart more potent than his sworn duties as king. Meanwhile, Sehrys is forced to ascend the throne in Firaes absence, thus taking a role he was once groomed for, but one that Brieden fears could destroy their life together. As each man struggles to understand his own destiny, devotion, and legacy, deeper and more urgent truths confront them all: Their world is in far greater danger than they realized, and each of them plays an integral part in its fate.
