"Tres Hermanas" narra la decadencia de las clases privilegiadas en la Rusia pre-revolucionaria, tratando de forma naturalista las vidas y aspiraciones de la familia Prozorov, insatisfechos y frustrados con su existencia. Así Chejov crea un maravilloso retrato psicológico del complejo mosaico de la personalidad humana, sus esperanzas y motivaciones. Una de las obras teatrales más destacadas del autor ruso, estrenada en 1901.
