"Una Habitación Propia" esconde la reflexión que la autora hizo para un ciclo de conferencias sobre la literatura y la mujer. El ensayo recorre la historia literaria de la mujeres, cuyo fin último es el de reivindicar para el género femenino la posibilidad de ser admitido en una cultura que hasta entonces se había mostrado como uso exclusivo de los hombres, en una sociedad inglesa de una pronunciada idiosincrasia patriarcal. En "Una habitación propia" Virginia Woolf revela toda la evolución de su pensamiento feminista.
