"Recuerdo haber leído en algún viejo periódico o en alguna revista antigua una crónica que, relatada como si fuera real, contaba la historia de un hombre, de nombre Wakefield, que decidió marcharse a vivir lejos de su mujer una temporada larga..."

Así comienza este relato, que Borges señaló como el más grande y perfecto artilugio narrativo de la historia, antecesor directo de los relatos de Melville y Franz Kafka. Wakefield es un hombre sosegado, vanidoso, egoísta, propenso a crear misterios pueriles. Un día dice a su mujer que va a emprender un viaje de negocios y que regresará en dos días...

Ana Juan, Premio Nacional de Ilustración 2010, ha realizado un impresionante trabajo gráfico que hace aún más atractivo este relato de culto.
